

THE FIRST PRAYER IN CONGRESS.—In Thatcher's Military Journal, under date of December, 1777, is found a note containing the identical "first prayer in Congress," made by the Rev. Jacob Duché, a gentleman of great eloquence. Here it is in its historical setting: "O Lord, our heavenly Father, high and mighty King of kings, and Lord of lords, who dost from thy throne behold all the dwellers of the earth, and reignest with power supreme and uncontrolled over all the kingdoms, empires and governments; look down in mercy, we beseech thee, on these American States, who have fled to thee from the rod of the oppressor, and thrown themselves on thy gracious protection, desiring to be henceforth dependent only on thee, to thee they have appealed for the righteousness of their cause; to thee they do now look up for that countenance and support which thou alone canst give; take them, therefore, heavenly Father, under thy nurturing care; give them wisdom in council, and valor in the field; defeat the malicious designs of our adversaries; convince them of the unrighteousness of their cause; and if they still persist in their sanguinary purpose, O let the voice of thine own unerring justice, sounding in their hearts, constrain them to drop the weapons of war from their unperished hands in the day of battle. Be thou present, O God of wisdom, and direct the councils of this honorable assembly; enable them to settle things on the best and surest foundation, that the scene of blood may be speedily closed, that order, harmony and peace may be effectually restored; and truth and justice, religion and piety, prevail and flourish amongst thy people. Preserve the health of their bodies and the vigor of their minds; shower down on them, and the millions they here represent, such temporal blessings as thou seest expedient for them in this world, and crown them with everlasting glory in the world to come. All this we ask in the name and through the merits of Jesus Christ, thy Son, our Saviour. Amen!"

FOUND HIS MATCH.—We heard and saw a good thing yesterday. In the Court of Sessions a petty case was being tried. A well known criminal lawyer, who prides himself on his skill in cross-examining a witness, had an odd-looking genius upon whom to operate. The witness was a boss shemarker:

"You see, sir, that the prisoner is a thief?"
"Yes, sir—cause why—she confessed it?"
"And you also swear she bound shoes for you subsequent to the confession?"
"I do, sir."
"Then (giving a significant look to the Court) we are to understand that you employ dishonest people to work for you, even after their rascalities are known?"
"Of course; how else could I get assistance from a lawyer?"

The counsellor said "stand aside," and in a tone which showed that if he had the witness' head in a bark mill, no mercy might have been expected. The judge nearly choked himself in a futile endeavor to make the spectators believe that a laugh was nothing but a hicough; while the witness stepped off the stand with all the gravity of a fashionable undertaker.—Ex.

"Well, Patrick," asked the doctor, "how do you feel to-day?"
"Oh, doctor, dear, I enjoy very poor health lately. This rheumatism is very distressing indeed; when I go to sleep I lay awake all night, and my toes are swelled as big as goose hen's eggs, so when I stand up I fall down immediately."

"A little fellow one day complimented his mother by making the following inquiry: 'Mother if a man is a mister, isn't a woman a mistery?'"

One night, recently, so the story goes, a gentleman, accompanied by his wife, went to see the ever-lasting "Seven Sins" at Laura Keane's Theater, in New York. The attendance was rather small that evening, and the gentleman and his lady, who had come in on the ordinary half-dollar ticket, helped themselves to a couple of vacant orchestra chairs. An usher came up and remarked that those chairs were seventy-five cents apiece. "Indeed!" answered the lady. "I should say they were extremely cheap at that; I am not in the furniture line, or for a Jove I'd buy 'em!" There was a general snicker in that quarter for a moment, and the usher, who appreciated the joke, "retired in good order," (as the military dispatches are accustomed to say,) and left the occupants unmolested for the remainder of the evening.

ONE'S MANNER.—The perfume of a thousand roses soon dies, but the pain caused by one of their thorns remains long after. A saddened remembrance in the midst of mirth is like that thorn among the roses.—There are some who refuse a favor so graciously as to please us; and there are others who confer an obligation so civilly, that they disgust us by the manner of a kindness—as puzzling to our feelings as the politeness of one who, if we had dropped our handkerchief, should present it to us with a pair of tongs.

CITIES OF EUROPE.—The population of the principal cities of Europe is as follows, according to the latest census returns: London, 2,950,000; Paris, 1,525,525; St. Petersburg, 494,565; Vienna, 486,224; Berlin, 438,961; Naples, 413,920; Madrid, 301,660; Lisbon, 275,286; Brussels, 264,481; Amsterdam, 248,756; Rome, 180,395; Hamburg, 181,696; Copenhagen, 113,635; Venice, 118,172; Dresden, 117,750; Munich, 114,734; Stockholm, 111,502. No others reach 100,000. Nearly as many cities on this side of the Atlantic reach the latter figure, as on the other.

A black republican paper called The Pine and the Palm, published in Boston, and a warm advocate of the war, says:

"If freedom can only prevail through the agency of vengeance, so be it; if the Temple of Liberty can only stand securely on the corpses of slaveholders—so be it; rather let the white race be avenged from the face of the earth, than endure the perpetuity of negro bondage. We would hesitate at no conceivable atrocity; we would spare neither parlor for cradle; neither age nor sex—did we believe that they must perish in order that negro slavery might perish with them!"

The following we take from the Vicksburg (Miss.) Citizen of Friday, May 23: We learn that the Vandals have come off their boats and battered down and utterly destroyed the residence of Jeff. Davis, and also that of Joe Davis. Their acts of destruction and vandalism in that neighborhood were complete, leaving nothing but a bleak and desolate track behind them.

HEADQUARTERS U. S. FORCES IN KY., Louisville, Ky., June 9, 1862.
The following instructions are issued for the guidance of officers in the cases specified:
I. All peaceful and law-abiding citizens and residents of the State must be protected in their persons, property, and rights; but citizens and residents who joined the so-called Confederate forces, or gave them aid and assistance, or went within their lines without license from the proper authorities, and have returned or may return, and be repentant for their conduct, must report themselves to Colonel Henry Dent, Provost Marshal of Louisville, Col. S. D. Bruce at Bowling Green, Major Brocht, Provost Marshal of Lexington, or Col. Noble at Paducah, and furnish evidence of such repentance, and take the oath of allegiance and give bonds with security for their future good conduct; and if they fail so to report themselves, they must be arrested and committed to the Military prison at Louisville, and sent thence to Camp Chase, with a statement of their case to await the action of the Secretary of War.

II. All persons who organize or aid in organizing forces for the rebellion, or aid in organizing guerrillas, or harbor or conceal, or give information or assistance to guerrillas, must be arrested and dealt with according to military law.

III. In times of trouble like these, good, law-abiding men will refrain from language and conduct that excites to rebellion.—For anything said or done with the intent to excite to rebellion, the offender must be arrested and his conduct reported, that he may be dealt with according to law.

IV. When damage shall be done to the person or property of loyal citizens of marauding bands or guerrillas, the district or neighborhood, or county will be held responsible, and a military commission appointed to assess damages and enforce compensation.

V. All arrests will be reported to these Headquarters, with a descriptive list of the prisoners, and a full statement of the case, and the substance of the evidence, and names and residences of witnesses.

By command of Brig. Gen. Boyle,
JOHN BOYLE, A. A. G.

Gen. Butler's Infamous Order.
The most outrageous order issued by any military commander, since the commencement of the Christian Era, was lately issued by GENERAL BUTLER, of the Federal Army, at New Orleans. We mean that infamous order of his, in relation to the L. dies of that city, in the words following, to-wit:

NOTICE.
HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE GULF, New Orleans, May 15, 1862.

General Orders, No. 28.
As the officers and soldiers of the United States have been subjected to repeated insults from the women (calling themselves ladies) of New Orleans, in return for the most scrupulous non-interference and courtesy on our part, it is ordered that hereafter when any female shall, by word, gesture or movement, insult or show contempt for any officer or soldiers of the United States, she shall be regarded and held liable to be treated as a woman of the town plying her avocation.

By command of
MAJ. GENERAL BUTLER,
G. C. STONE, A. A. G., Chief of Staff.

No American citizen can look upon such an order with any other sensations than those of shame and humiliation. It is a foul stigma upon the good name and fame of the Nation, and the man who promulgated it, should be promptly and forever dismissed from the service. This is all we shall say at present.

THE DARK WAY.—The thousands and tens of thousands of negroes now coming North, of course, have no other means of living than their labor or public charity.—They are being employed at very small wages, such as our white fellow-citizens could not compete with, and consequently the latter must be the sufferers. The effect of this immigration of the laboring classes will be very oppressive. Yet this is the natural result of the intermeddling of the North with the affairs of the South. When one set of men attempt to regulate the business of others, the generally bring evils upon themselves.—Crawford County Forum.

THE POLICY OF THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT.—The policy of the Treasury Department is to get in all outstanding treasury notes bearing interest and fund them. In their place demand notes to the extent of the public wants for currency purposes will be issued. One hundred millions of dollars of these are now out, and there is authority for issuing sixty millions more. Authority to issue further sums, as needed, will doubtless be given by Congress, and of these it is supposed there will be notes of denominations less than five dollars.—Scioto Gazette.

From the above it appears that the people will have an abundance of "promises to pay," if nothing better. Paper and printer's ink are plenty, and it costs but little to make such stuff; but men must be remarkably venient who suppose these "promises to pay" will ever be redeemed with gold or silver.—Hillsboro (O.) Gazette.

THE JEWS INCREASING.—It is said that in the year 1850 there were only ten synagogues in the whole land. To-day there are over a quarter of a million of Jews and about ninety synagogues, and smaller communities, out of which will soon be organized other synagogues. In the city of New York there are twenty synagogues and thirty thousand Jews, or about one-twentieth of the population of that city. In all the principal seaboard cities there are synagogues; there are two in Boston, five in Baltimore, three in New Orleans, two in Charleston, four in Cincinnati, and five in Philadelphia.

The gorgeous Cathedral in the City of Mexico is the largest structure on the American continent. It is 500 feet long, 420 feet wide, and capable of holding 30,000 persons. The high altar, raised from the floor on an elevated platform, exhibits a profusion of candlesticks, crosses, and other ornaments of solid gold and silver, decked in jewels estimated at the value of more than $2,500,000; and all other parts of the church are a perfect wilderness of columns, statues, shrines, fonts, etc.

If we could read the secret history of our enemies, we should find in each man's life sorrow and suffering enough to disarm all hostility.

HEALTH RESTORED!

DR. MOTT'S Chalybeate Pills.

An appetizing and stomachic preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combination in Hydrogen, of high medical authority and extraordinary efficacy in each of the following complaints, viz.:

DEBILITY, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, EMACIATION, DYSPPEPSIA, DIARRHÆA, CONSTIPATION, SCROFULA, SALT RHEUM, RHEUMATISM, MERCURIAL DISEASE, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DELIRIUM, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, EPILEPSY, RIGA DE ST. ASPERMOY'S FLUX, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which feister in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find pimples, eruptions, or sores, cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this the balance of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

Sarsaparilla has, and deserves much, the reputation of accomplishing these ends. But the world has been egregiously deceived by preparations of it, partly because the drug alone has not all the virtues that is claimed for it, but more because many preparations pretending to be concentrated extracts of it, contain but little of the virtue of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been found upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. If new, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. In order to secure their complete eradication from the system, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.

Price, 50¢ per Bottle; Six Bottles for $3.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has won for itself such a renown for the cure of every variety of Croup and Croupy Cough, that it is entirely unnecessary for us to recount the evidence of its virtues, wherever it has been employed. As it has long been in constant use throughout this section, we need not do more than assure the people its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and it may be relied on to do for their relief all it has ever been found to do.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

Constipation, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dropsy, and all the diseases of the Liver, Gallbladder, and Bowels, and all the diseases of the Blood.

They are sugar-coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best aperient in the world for all the purposes of family physic.
Price 25 cents per Box; Five boxes for $1.00.

Great numbers of Clergymen, Physicians, Statesmen, and eminent persons, have long borne names to certify the unparalleled usefulness of these remedies, but our space here will not permit the insertion of them. The Agents below named furnish gratis, to all who send for them, a full and complete description of the Cathartic Pills, and also full descriptions of the above complaints, and the treatment that should be followed for their cure.

Do not be misled by unprincipled dealers who demand AYER'S, and take no others. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should know that all our remedies are for sale by
